2018 Board of Directors Nominee Information & Profile

Wanted: Talented and committed TWC members to serve on the Board of Directors for 2018

TWC is looking for dedicated Board Members to provide a regular commitment throughout the 2018 windsurfing season.

We require individuals who have TWC's best interest in mind. You will be asked to attend monthly meetings, and to work on special projects and events. Board meetings and committee work take up approximately 4 hours per month. There might also be planning sessions, committee meetings or other board events that will require additional dedicated time.

Typical Board Meeting Agenda:

1. Approve previous minutes
2. Financial update
3. Club issues
4. Events - upcoming
5. Monthly newsletter and web updates
6. Reports from Committees
7. Set next board meeting date

Please provide a short note on why you would like to be considered as a candidate for the board of directors of the Toronto Windsurfing club. Below are some suggested areas that you may wish to consider as a committee member. Please indicate your interest. Do not feel that a response is required for all areas.
