

Privacy Policy

Toronto Windsurfing Club (TWC) respects your privacy and is committed to protecting your personal information.

We only collect information for managing TWC membership and administration. We do not share, sell or rent your personal information unless required to do so by law.

We protect your personal information using strong passwords. We highly recommend that you use a strong password when signing up for TWC membership.

TWC's website allows you to see your member profile, book Learn to Windsurf lessons and Stay Hooked sessions as well as buy and sell Windsurfing/SUP equipment. Our website provider Wild Apricot uses cookies to help analyze website use and trends. See Wild Apricot to learn what information is collected and how it is used.

We may share generic demographic information regarding how TWC uses the water with the City of Toronto, Waterfront Toronto and other local water/land use stakeholder clubs. We ensure that this information is aggregated so that it cannot be used to identify individual members.

TWC sends periodic newsletters with content related to club programs, events, activities, discipline, appeals and other pertinent information. You may unsubscribe at any time using the unsubscribe function in an email that you have received from the club or by emailing askus@torontowindsurfingclub.com. Please allow up to 10 business days for your email to be removed from our system.
